Just received the following reply dated Moscow March One post- marked Fourteen: I have received your letter of January 30th, 1961. I think that your suggestion on the question of the COSPAR activity is of certain interest and must be carefully examined that is why I have sent the letter to the leaders of the Academy of Sciences of the USSR. I inform you that I have no intentions to partake in the COSPAR Meeting and Symposium which will take place in Florence in April. The only reason of it is that I am too busy now and truly to say I can't afford myself to have such a pleasant trip. I hope that you will attend the International Biochemistry Congress in Moscow and I shall have a pleasure to
